

THE STAR-SPANGLED MORNING JULY 1, 1863.

CARPET-BAGGEE

Anticipating the Result of the Fall Elections

REIRE WORKS.—Major Agnew has issued a proclamation, in which he says: "The ordinance prohibiting the discharge of fire-arms, sky-rockets, fire-crackers or other explosive or noxious substance on the 4th of July, by order of the County Commissioners on Richardson street, from Elmwood avenue to Gervais street, and on the streets for a distance of one square mile East and West of Richardson street, on the 4th of July, from Laurel to Gervais street."

DOINGS OF THE CITY FATHERS.—A special meeting of the City Council was held on the 30th ult.

Sunday sessions were proposed, and a fact for burial of pauper dead was awarded to M. H. Kelly. G. Richmond was appointed Surveyor.

THE CELEBRATION TODAY.—The colored citizens will celebrate to-day. A procession will be formed in front of the City Hall, at 9 A. M., and marched to Sidney Park, until noon.

James Marshall, Mayor of the City, and Alderman Marshall S. B. Thompson, Representative of the colored men, who will read the Declaration of Independence, W. Jones, will be orator of the day, and speeches will be delivered by other patriots.

DISAPPOINTED.—An order has just been issued, prohibiting all parties from bathing in Hampton's Pond, or encroaching upon the grounds. This will disappoint many individuals, who expected to CRIMINAL.—A. Montague was committed by United States Commissioner Wilkes, for attempting to pass counterfeit United States currency.

Private McEvoy was fined $1 and costs by Justice McGoldrick, for assault and battery on George Washington.

Justice Marshall bound over Albert Carter in the sum of $100, for breaking injury done to a stable.

Justice Thompson issued warrants for the arrest of George Washington and John Volney, charged with stealing a pair of boots; the former $12, and a warrant for Anthony Bradley, who was arrested and had his case continued.

THE R. E. B. ONCE AGAIN.—A correspondent of the Quarterly Sun writes:

"The Federal world has been astounded by the array of preparations made under the understanding that the 1st of August is to be satisfied. One of the first to receive this information was Mr. Lincoln, who will be the temporary Governor, while Mr. Carpenter will be Comptroller General. The members of the cabinet and 'form' Cardozo will voice so clear that he is here for the Treasury. Mr. Carpenter will subside and Attorney-General, Gov. Chamberlain will go to the Senate on the 1st of August. Eliot will be Gov. Leg. Q. Wallace, Pease, Small, are to be re-appointed, although Patterson Carpenter instead of him and the matter is not fully determined. Bowen will sent to Charleston, and Mackey will look after the situation there. It is to be decided who is to be the vice-chairman.

"No 50,000 persons will be the Speaker. This is an office which is definitely occupied, but there is no definite name yet. I believe shortly, it will be subject of remiss among Indians at a meeting, this schedule would not be adopted. Newland, Consideration, gentlemen settled that marking with a mark, money heals the sore.

"I have just heard that George Marshall is to be reinstated, revived and com-

"Tom C. H. will be permitted to draw up and write occasional editorials. The old Senators whose terms expire will be succeeded by new ones.

"George will be re-elected public printer, if that is done. Only Moses and Whipple are yet unprovided for. It has been stated that Gov. Chamberlain himself is not present in this programme, and the proceedings were subject to his approval.

"He will do remains to be seen. Grave doubts are entertained of his acquiescence in
